

MasterCard Corporate Card Program

Whoever said it's a small world didn't manage a global T&E program.

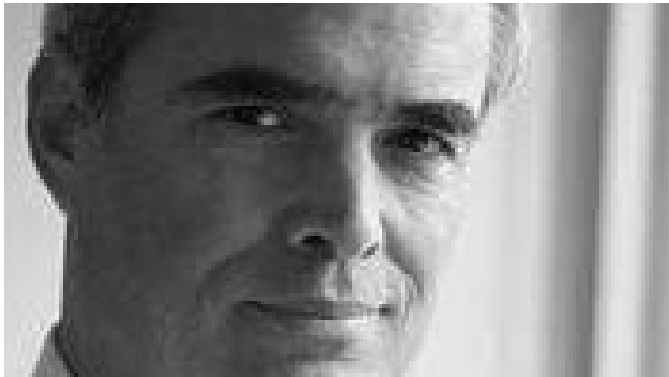

Make every business trip a smart move with the Applied Intelligence of MasterCard Worldwide

Tired of all the inefficiencies and headaches associated with corporate travel? The MasterCard Corporate Card® program can provide you with a global solution that will help you cut costs and increase productivity wherever you conduct business. It gives you the control to seamlessly organize, consolidate, and analyze spend data – anytime, anywhere in 13 languages and virtually every currency. So you can better manage expenses, ensure policy compliance, negotiate better deals with suppliers, and find profits in new places – from Baltimore to Bali.

Cut costs throughout your program

- Reduce the expense of processing, administration, system file maintenance, and operations.
- Access transactional data through automated posting to the general ledger.
- Negotiate better deals with merchants.

YOU DIDN'T EVEN GO WITH THEM TO HONG KONG. BUT YOU KNOW MORE ABOUT THEIR TRIP THAN THEY DO.

Customize travel accounts and cards with controls you set

- Set spending limits for trips by amount, transactions per day, type of merchant, or specific merchants.
- Change purchasing authorization and spending criteria, quickly and easily.

Track spending with custom reports

- Simplify the process of funds allocation to separate cost centers, project numbers, etc., from one purchasing statement.
- Study reports by detail, frequency, location, and management level.
- Increase the efficiency of travel expense reconciliation.
- Receive enhanced data on transactions.

MasterCard provides enhanced data on transactions from our partners.

The intelligence to get more out of every business trip

MasterCard Smart Data™ OnLine –

Maximize and manage your card program with this proprietary, web-based reporting application used by 20,000 companies worldwide. Seamlessly organize, analyze, manage, and consolidate financial data from cards, cash transactions, and other MasterCard programs.

MasterCard ExpensSys™ – Work with your choice of experienced expense management providers to generate auto-populated electronic expense reports. Capture data more effectively between the card transaction and the expense report, while reducing the chances for data manipulation and errors.
